Dear Hiring Manager,

Hello, my name is Amber Huffman. I read your advertisement for a massage therapist [here]. I am a Certified Massage Therapist with the CAMTC Organization and an enthusiastic student of Holistic Health. I am a passionate believer in the various benefits that bodywork provides and my goal is to be a part of a wellness center that works toward creating a safe space and encourages clients to learn, grow and heal. I would love to be a part of your team at [fill in], helping to create a thoroughly relaxing atmosphere, leaving your valuable clients with a sense of ease and increased awareness in their bodies.

I have worked with an extensively diverse group of individuals through my separate businesses and I have learned from every single one of them. I am a charismatic, professional massage therapist, always trying my best to understand clients with empathy and openness. My aim is to positively lend my hands and heart toward healing body, mind and spirit - also to empower clients with self-awareness and to relieve pain and discomfort. I believe whole-heartedly that bodywork is an extremely important piece in the healthcare puzzle and I make a sincere effort to tailor sessions specifically for my clients' wants and needs.

I am able to offer a friendly, energetic personality, skilled hands and a unique perspective to your practice and clientele with confidence, openness and a resilient positive attitude. I will be in contact with you this coming Monday to discuss future employment opportunities with you, as we have much more to talk about. Thank you for your time and consideration!

Sincerely,
